

Mid EXAM -Forensic

SEMSTER 5 - 2024/2025 - 29/10/2025 -

10:00 to 10:20am

1- Which of the following factors delays arsenic absorption?

Answer: Fatty acids

2- Which of the following produces tonic convulsions in the spinal cord?

Answer: Strychnine

3- Which of the following is among the most common causes of poisoning in children?

Answer: Accidental poisoning

4- Which of the following is considered a contraindication for gastric lavage?

Answer: Corrosive substances

5- Which of the following maintains airway opening in a poisoned patient?

Answer: Triple airway manoeuvre

6- Which of the following increases osmotic pressure in the intestine?

Answer: Sorbitol

7- In a male, rigor mortis was found to be complete in all parts of the body 8 hours after death. The victim most likely died from which of the following?

Answer: Convulsions

8- If the position of a dead body is changed after 16 hours, the site of hypostasis is:

Answer: Fixed in its original site

9- A living cadaver is characterized by which of the following?

Answer: Breathing spontaneously

10- Hypostasis is absent in which of the following conditions?

Answer: Drowning in moving water